

BCL will reimburse the cost of:

- Transport to and from the UK airport
- Return flights and transfers
- Hotel accommodation
- Conference fee
- Conference dinner

Please note the following are NOT included in this offer:

- Meals not included in the Conference programme.
- Insurance (it is a condition of this offer that you take out appropriate travel, health and cancellation insurance).
- Hotel extras or other extras.

This offer is on the basis that you agree to:

- Attend the whole Conference.
- Bring back whatever material is available and seek permission to circulate it to the BVCS members.
- Write comprehensive reports on the lectures, highlighting issues of particular importance and/or relevance to UK camelid vets and owners, which BCL can circulate to all BCL members' vets (irrespective of whether they are BVCS members).
- Attend the BVCS conference later the same year (usually held in October or November) to present a summary of the most useful information presented at the conference. This commitment involves giving a presentation and providing written notes, which can be shared between recipients of this funding in any given year. Note that sponsorship does not extend to cover costs of attending the BVCS conference which is also usually heavily subsidised by BCL.
- Write comprehensive articles in layman's terms for the British Alpaca Society and British Llama Society magazines (including if possible some photos) covering the main topics of the conference.
- Allow the above reports to be posted on the BCL website.
- Represent BCL (as well as BVCS) and use the Conference to network on behalf of BVCS and BCL and promote reciprocal information flow.

- Make your own flight booking to Oregon and pay the cost.
- Pay transport costs from the airport to the hotel and from hotel to conference (and return).
- Check whether you need a visa and arrange this if required and pay the cost. British citizens eligible to travel to the United States on the Visa Waiver Program (VWP) will need to register on line with the Electronic System for Travel Authorization (ESTA) before departure.
- Accept that BCL is not responsible for any loss (including earnings) due to cancellation of flights, cancellation of the event, etc.
- Submit a claim to recover agreed costs which will only be reimbursed against receipts/invoices (or other supporting evidence).

Please note that BCL has no objection if you wish to extend dates either side, make alternative flight arrangements, arrange to be accompanied etc. providing that all extra costs are at your own expense.
